These records must be made available to the Children's Guardian for inspection upon request, in written form or an electronic format approved by the Children's Guardian.

Condition 6

Where this registered agency provides placement/s or is identified as the Principal Care Agency providing care to a child or young person who has been in voluntary out-of-home care for more than a total of 90 days in a 12 month period, the agency must make available records pertaining to the supervision and planning for the needs of that child or young person to the Children's Guardian, upon request.

Condition 11

This registered agency must, by notice in writing, give the Children's Guardian the address of any location in which the agency provides voluntary out-of-home care within 5 working days of commencing to provide voluntary out-of-home care at that location.

Condition 12

This registered agency must, by notice in writing, advise the Children's Guardian if it is currently providing out-of-home care to a child or young person who is the subject of a statutory care and protection order or a temporary care arrangement within 5 working days of the imposition of this condition.

This registered agency must, by notice in writing, advise the Children's Guardian if it is providing out-of-home care to a child or young person who is the subject of a statutory care and protection order or a temporary care arrangement, within 5 working days of commencing to provide care under the arrangement.

Giving false or misleading information to the Children's Guardian is a serious offence.

The Children's Guardian may cancel the agency's registration if it fails to comply with any of these conditions.

The Children's Guardian may publish details of failure to comply with conditions of registration in the Children's Guardian's Annual Report to Parliament.

A decision of the Children's Guardian to impose, not impose, vary or revoke a condition of registration is reviewable by the NSW Civil and Administrative Tribunal (NCAT), under clause 7 of the Children and Young Persons (Care and Protection) Regulation 2012, following an internal review by the Children's Guardian. Further information about NCAT and internal reviews may be obtained from NCAT (ph: 1300 006 228).
